- 11.14 The authorized Party signatories shall issue a Nomination Certificate and forward to the IEBC, the Party List in accordance with Sec. 35 of the Elections Act, 2011.

RULE 12 - WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURE OF A CANDIDATE

- 12.1 Any person who has filed a Declaration of Candidacy for an office has the right to withdraw it.
- 12.2 Once a person is declared the nominee for a specified office, either after the canvass of the primary nomination process or the candidate listing ends and they are the only candidate to have filed and prevail, the nominee can resign as a candidate 180 days before the general election by way of submitting to the Elections Board which certified their nomination a written request that they be permitted to withdraw.
- 12.3 No candidate shall be deemed to have withdrawn until a Candidacy Withdrawal Form is signed by such candidate and filed with the Elections Board.
- 12.4 The withdrawal must be completed any time before the end of fourteen (14) day before the nomination, vetting and party listing period ends.
- 12.5 If any candidate withdraws before final formation and ranking of the list, the Elections Board may consider further nominations for the list to ensure numbers and choices on the list are appropriate for the forthcoming election.
- 12.6 If only one person has declared their candidacy to a particular office and the candidate whose candidacy has been so filed thereafter, but prior to the conclusion of the primary, withdraws his name from nomination or for any reason becomes disqualified to hold the office for which he is a candidate, no primary shall be held for the nomination to that office;
- 12.7 If after the date of closing of nominations, and before the final selection is made, any candidate withdraws his or her name from nomination for selection, the Branch Executive Committee may, subject to the approval of the Elections Board, declare such sole constituency candidate, if only one constituency candidate remains after such withdrawal, duly selected.
- 12.8 In case the candidate wins the primaries, they shall not be considered as such and thus the National Executive Council shall have the right to fill in the vacancy left by the withdrawal using other voting methods that may be deemed fit to elect a replacement within the allowed period of time.
- 12.9 The filing fee will not be refunded for any candidate who has withdrawn their candidature.
- 12.10 If it appears to the Executives of any level of the party that formal withdrawal of Party endorsement of a selected candidate is in the interests of the Party, and the candidate is unwilling to withdraw his/her candidature or if it appears to the Elections Board that the actions of the candidate are prejudicial to the interests of the Party and the candidate is unwilling to withdraw his/her candidature, or in addition to any normal legal remedies that may be available to the Party in respect of the provision by a candidate of untrue information in a prescribed form, questionnaire, interview or in response to questions in a "Meet the Candidates" Meeting, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- a) Approval shall be sought by the Branch Executive or County Working Committee from the Elections Board to undertake a meeting to consider withdrawal of endorsement; or
- b) Withdrawal of the Party's endorsement of the candidate shall be at any time before or after the final selection meeting subject to the approval of the NEC;
- c) The Elections Board convene a meeting that the withdrawal of the party-endorsement of the candidate is to be discussed. At least fourteen (14) days prior notice of the meeting, shall be given to the Branch Executives and County Working Committee concerned, and to the Selection Committee;
- d) The Chairs of the Elections Board and the National Executive Council shall convene a meeting with the Chair of the Branch/County concerned to consider withdrawal of the endorsement. The candidate must be informed of the reasons for dissatisfaction with his or her candidacy and given an opportunity to state his or her case; and
- e) A resolution of the Elections Board 's withdrawing the Party's endorsement shall be effective forthwith if passed by a simple majority of those present and voting with such decision being final and binding, and no reasons needing to be given.

RULE 13 - REGISTRATION FOR WRITE-IN CANDIDATES

- 13.1 A person who did not file a Declaration of Candidacy and fulfill their nomination requirements to place their name on the ballot or the party list may try their luck to run for office as a write-in candidate.
- 13.2 Write-in candidacy is possible only if it is a voter's desire to exercise their right according to the party constitution, to nominate their preferred candidate who did not make it to present their nominations before the deadlines or during the "Meet the Candidate" or Nominations Meeting but subject to the acceptance and approval of the Selections Committee.
- 13.3 The voter will need to know how to correctly write the nominee's name and address, the designation of the office sought and any other information which the Secretary deems necessary, in a blank "write-in" space immediately below the candidates listed on the ballot.
- 13.4 The voter is not required to mark an "X" beside the name but rather may write-in any person they wish for any office regardless of whether the person has qualified or not and the office the nominee is aspiring to be elected. If they write the nominee's name in for a different office, their vote will count for that office, instead of the one he/she desired to running for.
- 13.5 If a voter misspells the nominee's name or address, the vote can still be counted, as long as the Scrutineers or polling clerks and the Returning officer can figure out the voter's intent.
- 13.6 The Write-in votes will only be counted, tabulated and certified in a Statement of Vote only for qualified write-in candidates. The candidate nominated by write-in vote in a primary, will need to file a written acceptance of the nomination. No person whose name has been written-in for an office may have his or her name registered as a candidate for the ensuing Candidate Selection unless one of the following is applicable:
 - i. He or she receives for a voter-nominated office, the highest number of votes cast for that office or the second highest number of votes cast for that office,
 - ii. He or she receives votes equal in number to 25 percent of all votes cast for the office at the "Meet the Candidate" Meeting,
 - iii. He or she is subject to the same requirements as other candidates including payment of the stated nominations fees.

- 13.7 If the required nominations paperwork isn't filed by the deadline for the "Meet the Candidate" (Primary) Meeting, the name of the nominee can't be printed on the final party list.
- 13.8 Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, to qualify as a write-in candidate for any office, a person shall register his candidacy thereafter with the Branch Secretary no later than 14 days after the Party primaries and file a statement of Write-in Candidacy which shall contain the candidate's name, residence address, ID Number and a declaration stating that he or she is a write-in candidate, and the title of the office for which he or she is running.
- 13.9 No person nominated as a write-in candidate for any office under the provisions of this section, shall be endorsed if the person has been disqualified subject to the provisions of the Party Constitution and these rules.
- 13.10 Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules, a person may not be a write-in candidate at the general election.

- 17.5 The Branch (Constituency) shall be the basic Electoral College mandated to conduct the vetting, voting and selection of the party-endorsed candidates.

- 17.6 The NEC shall by a resolution determine the mode of election in any electoral area in the Republic of Kenya provided that NEB shall publish such resolutions not later than twenty- one days to the date of party primaries.
- 17.7 The Elections Board shall schedule, plan and communicate with all its membership the dates and times and criteria for conducting the party primaries; if the day fixed for any party primary or candidate selection falls on a Sunday or a legal holiday or on a day on which the tenets of a religion forbid secular activity, the party primaries shall be held on the next succeeding day other than a Sunday or a legal or such other religious holiday.
- 17.8 The Secretary, as the case may be for a Branch, County or Region, or such other authority of the party, shall no later than thirty (30) days in consultation with the National Executive Council and NEB, call for a meeting or convention to determine the conduct of the nominations and the primaries. Before the party holds such meeting, the secretary of such meeting shall provide the date, time, location and purpose of the meeting.
- 17.9 If paper ballots are required for the vote on any office or elective position, the Elections Board, shall print the paper ballots and set the general rules to be followed for their use in the elections which should conform to those provided herein.

By Consensus

- 17.10 Where an elective post has attracted more than one candidate, the candidates, the Party officials, the community leaders and the party members from that electoral area, may initiate a consensus-building process.
- 17.11 The parties to a consensus-building process may arrive at any of the following decisions:
- a) One candidate to represent the Party at the elections; or
 - b) Two strong candidates whose names are to be submitted to the NEB, to determine the candidate, to run on the Party ticket.
- 17.12 When determining the consensus candidates, the following shall be taken account:
- a) That the selected consensus candidates qualify to contest for the position, in accordance with the applicable laws;
 - b) That the selected consensus candidates are the best suited to represent the Party in the electoral area.
- 17.13 Following the consensus-building process the candidates and other parties to the process shall sign an agreement indicating the outcome of the consensus-building process.
- 17.14 All the candidates to the consensus agreement shall sign a formal resolution giving effect to the agreement.
- 17.15 The Party will refund any application fees paid by the candidates who have not been selected by consensus.
- 17.16 The candidates who withdraw their candidature in favour of another shall give a formal undertaking not to participate in the ensuing elections either as independent candidates and/or on the tickets of other political parties.
- 17.17 Where the Party is privileged to make appointments and/or nominations to certain positions and the party list, the Party, in making such appointments and/or nominations, shall consider the appointment of such candidates who will have withdrawn in favour of a Party candidate under this method, provided that these candidates qualify for the position.

Delegates System

- 17.18 A Branch or County or National Delegates may opt to select its candidates or conduct Party primary elections, not by way of Unanimous Consensus or Preferential Voting but through a vote by the party delegates system.
- 17.19 For the purposes of electing National Officials, the National Delegates Convention shall be guided by these rules and by any other relevant provision of the party Constitution.
- 17.20 For purposes of conducting elections by delegates, the Elections Board shall ensure that all paid up SFUP members are entitled to one vote during the nomination and there shall be a register of all Party members in all Wards, Constituencies and Counties as the case may be.
- 17.21 Where Party primary elections are conducted by the vote of the party delegates system the Elections Board shall ensure that;
- a) only the delegates whose names appear in the National Delegates Voters Register and are present at the Convention shall be eligible to vote;
 - b) there is a quorum before the commencement of business of elections in accordance with the Party Constitution and these Rules;
 - c) the elections at the National Delegates Convention shall be by secret ballot or any other method approved by the delegates in session;
 - d) in the event of an equality of votes at any voting, there shall be a second voting, after which the Chairperson shall have a deciding vote;

17.27 The quorum for the National Delegates Convention for the purpose of conducting elections for National Officials shall be half (50%) of the members eligible to attend and participate in the elections.

Ranked Preferential Ballot

17.28 A Ranked Preferential Ballot may be chosen as a voting method and shall be used as follows:

- a) A Ballot paper shall be distributed with each candidate listed in alphabetical order;
- b) No name of any candidate shall be printed on any official ballot at any election except the name of a candidate approved by the Elections Board to enter into the party list;
- c) Each delegate shall be required to number (rank) the candidates on the voting paper in order of that delegate's preference for the ballot to be valid;
- d) The ranking of the candidates for consideration by the Selections Committee, shall be undertaken by the Scrutineers or Counting Clerks using the counting method described below;
 - i. The Scrutineers or Counting Clerk shall count the first preference vote for each of the nominated candidates who shall not be more than 10 candidates;
 - ii. The candidate who obtains more than 50% of the valid votes shall be the top-ranking candidate and the successful candidate will be the one who secures one half or more of the valid votes cast;
 - iii. In the event that after the first ballot count no candidate secures one half or more of the valid votes cast, the candidate with the least number of votes will be eliminated from the ballot and a further ballot held with the remaining candidates;

- iv. The next highest preference votes expressed by those who voted for the removed candidate shall be allocated to the remaining candidates. This process will be repeated until one candidate obtains more than 50% of the valid preference votes and they shall be the top-ranking candidate;
- v. In the event of more than one candidate receiving the lowest number of votes and if elimination of those candidates would leave at least three in the next succeeding ballot, both or all of those tying for the lowest vote shall be eliminated;
- vi. A new count will then commence to determine the second-ranked candidate. Commencing again with the first preference votes for all candidates, the highest-ranking candidate will be removed and their second preferences will be allocated to the remaining candidates.
- vii. A candidate who then obtains more than 50% of the votes shall be declared the second-ranked candidate;
- viii. In the case where a deputy is to be elected (including Deputy President and Deputy Governor, or in the National Officials) in the same meetings or convention, then the second ranking candidate will immediately assume that position;
- ix. If no candidate achieves that number of votes, the balloting process above shall be repeated until all candidates are ranked and one candidate is successful in securing one half or more of the votes cast, and that person shall be declared by the Chair to be the selected candidate for that Branch or County;
- x. In the event of two or more candidates obtaining the same and the highest total number of votes at any stage of the vote counting, in a primary held to nominate candidates for an elective office, and a tie vote thereby occurs, the casting vote cast by the Chair of the meeting shall choose between any tied candidates with the candidate ranking lowest being eliminated for that stage.

Direct Nomination

17.29 Notwithstanding any other provision in these Rules, the Party may issue direct nominations to candidates. Where direct nomination is the method to be applied, the NEB shall carry out a due diligence exercise to justify the use of this method. The due diligence exercise shall take into consideration any of the following:

- a) That there is consensus by candidates as set out above;
- b) Credible research has been carried out in regards to the relevant electoral area through a scientific survey conducted by a competent entity, to provide an evidence-based opinion that a particular candidate is best placed to deliver the relevant electoral seat for the Party.
- c) There is a confirmation that the aspirant is the only qualified candidate for the position that is the subject of the electoral exercise or stands elected.
- d) That such a direct nomination shall aid the Party to comply with the provisions of Article 81(b) of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 as to gender thresholds provided that the candidate under consideration is qualified and capable of delivering the seat for the party.
- e) That the party leadership has for compelling reasons recommended that it is in the best interest of the party to issue direct party nomination to certain candidates.

17.30 In the application of the direct nomination method, the Party may also consider the views other representatives of the electorate from the applicable electoral area including but not limited to community opinion leaders; party members from the electoral area including women, youth and persons with disability; religious and cultural leaders; and;

- 17.31 Where a candidate and or his or her supporters disrupt the party primaries through the use of violence, intimidation and other means that make it impossible for the conduct of a free and fair exercise, the NEB shall have the authority to give a direct nomination to any of the other opponents if the time left, or the resource factor does not permit the repeat of the exercise in a credible manner.
- 17.32 The Party Supreme Advisory Committee shall meet to consider and approve the list of persons to be given direct party nomination certificates after consideration of the report that shall have been compiled by the NEB in line with the provisions of the sub-rules on direct nominations.
- 17.33 Where the Party issues a direct nomination to a candidate, the other candidates who had applied for that position shall be refunded the application fees paid.

Computer-Enabled Vote Tabulating System

- 17.34 Where circumstances demand, the NEB may opt to conduct a vote for an election through a computer-enabled method which means the NEB shall provide every polling centre with a suitable electronic gadget containing the requisite capability to support computer-enabled voting.
- 17.35 The voters shall, where applicable and subject to availability of a vote tabulating unit, cast their ballots using the portable scanning machine. This vote tabulator reads and records how the ballot is marked, deposits it into the ballot box, stores the information and produces election results after the close of the voting place. The unit is a portable ballot scan vote tabulator and sits on top of a specially designed ballot box.
- 17.36 The vote tabulating system uses one composite ballot on which is printed the candidates' names for any of the party or elective offices.
- 17.37 The voter shall use a special marking pen to fill in the blanks next to the candidate of their choice then the ballot is inserted into the vote tabulating unit by the Scrutineer in charge of the unit. The vote tabulator reads and stores the information in the unit.
- 17.38 The Presiding Officer and the polling clerks at the Polling stations shall facilitate computer-enabled voting by the voters in the electoral area.
- 17.39 At the close of voting on election day, the vote tabulator will print cumulative totals of all votes cast and the totals will be uploaded to a central server by the Returning Officer. The Presiding Officer shall declare the polling closed and proceed to announce the results as generated by every gadget used for polling at the Polling station; which the Presiding Officer shall then cause to be aggregated to determine the cumulative vote results for the entire Polling Station.
- 17.40 The final election results are produced by the vote tabulator unit, then the Presiding Officer shall declare the aggregated, cumulative results, in the presence of the candidates and /or their agents, where either is present.
- 17.41 The Presiding Officer shall transfer the results of the voting into the applicable physical forms for the results on every gadget used for voting and for the polling station as a whole, in the presence of the agents, who shall sign these forms.
- 17.42 The Presiding Officer shall transmit the Results to the Tallying Centre, using the gadget that is network-enabled. He/she shall also take photographic evidence of the signed physical forms and send the information to the returning officer and to the NEB results centre.
- 17.43 The Presiding officer shall physically deliver the signed used voters registers in sealed and marked envelopes; the signed electronic gadget and results forms and the gadgets used voting.

Universal Suffrage

- 17.44 Universal suffrage of registered party members (certified by the Registrar of Political Parties) shall be employed as the method of last resort in the election of Party candidates under these Rules.
- 17.45 It is hereby provided that where an election shall be held under the universal suffrage method the NEB shall determine the mode to be used having due regard to the number of registered party members (certified by the Registrar of Political Parties) as registered voters in the assigned polling station.
- 17.46 A Branch Executive proposing universal suffrage as its candidate selection process, shall decide to do so by notifying the NEB no less than one month before the opening of primaries and abide by any reasonable directives given by National Executive Council.
- 17.47 Where the NEB has determined that an election will be held for a specific electoral area by way of a vote by universal suffrage of registered party members, any of the following methods may be applied:
- a) Through a division where voters are separated into different clusters on the basis of the candidate they support (which may include queuing in support of the preferred candidates);
 - b) A vote is carried out by show of hands or Ranked Preferential Ballot in support of the preferred candidate;
 - c) A vote is carried out by secret ballot:
 - i. Through the manually-cast ballot voting system;
 - ii. Through a computer-enabled voting system.
- 17.48 The provisions on voting by universal suffrage of registered party members (certified by the Registrar of Political Parties) at the polling station shall be applied under delegates system with the necessary adjustments to elections including the following:
- a) The Polling station(s) for the nomination and voting by universal suffrage shall be at the Wards and as determined by the NEB.
 - b) The counting/tallying of votes shall be done at the polling and tallying stations.
 - c) The results for elections for candidates for the county assembly shall be declared at the polling stations or branch tallying centre and a certificate issued to the winners after such declaration.
 - d) The results for the positions of Member of the National Assembly, County Woman Representative to the National Assembly, Member of the Senate and Governor shall be declared after the tallying of their respective polling stations' results at the tallying centre.
 - e) All the results of the polling station shall be digitally transmitted to NEB by the Ward or Branch or County Returning Officer who shall take a photograph of the results declaration form and share the photographic images of the results as reflected and signed by the Presiding Office, candidates and/or their agents.

Election of Presidential Candidate

- 17.49 Further to Article 9.22 (e) of the Party Constitution, the incumbent party leader shall automatically be deemed nominated for the position of president or be re-elected as the president or any other elected position without forfeiting their role as the leader of the party. The Party Leader shall be endorsed at the National Delegates Convention (NDC) as the Party's presidential candidate.
- 17.50 Without prejudice to the above provision, Article 9.20 (j) of the party constitution, all delegates of the party at the National Delegates Convention shall nominate or elect separately the Presidential Candidate and the Deputy President.

- 17.51 The National Delegates Convention (NDC) shall be duly convened as prescribed under Article 23.8 of the Party Constitution and constitute not more than 3,000 delegates.
- 17.52 The delegates present shall convert into a National Electoral College and participate in the elections to endorse the Party Presidential Candidate.
- 17.53 Where the Party Leader is to be endorsed by the NDC as the Party's presidential candidate, the following procedure shall apply:
- a) A plenary of delegates who are eligible to vote at the NDC shall be convened by the relevant officials in consultation with the NEB for purposes of carrying out the election.
 - b) The Chairperson of the NEB, after confirming that the candidate has complied with the eligibility requirements under the applicable laws and these Rules, shall call out the Party Leader's name.
 - c) The Chairperson of the NEB after calling out the Party Leader's name, shall invite a proposer and seconder, to so propose and second the Party Leader.
 - d) The Chairperson of the NEB shall call on the delegates in the plenary to audibly endorse their approval or non-approval of a candidate.
 - e) The Party Leader duly endorsed by the delegates shall be deemed duly nominated as the Party's presidential candidate and the Chairperson of the National Elections Board shall promptly issue the Party Leader with a Certificate of Nomination in the prescribed form.
- 17.54 Subject to these Rules, where there is a vacancy in the office of the Party Leader or the Party Leader does not wish to present his or her candidature for election to the office of President the NDC shall, acting as a National Electoral College, elect a person to be the Party's presidential candidate from among suitably qualified candidates to be the Party's candidate for office of President. This follows a rigorous exercise of receiving proposals to fill in these positions from Regional Representative Council and the County Associations or any other Party organ and Committee;
- 17.55 Subject to this rule, the Party's Presidential candidate may be selected by the consensus of the party presidential aspirants and affirmed through a vote by acclamation of the delegates at the NDC.
- 17.56 Election of the Party Presidential candidate by acclamation shall be conducted by plenary affirmation or rejection of a proposed nominee by the acclamation of 'Aye' or 'Nay' by the delegates eligible to participate in the election and present in the plenary meeting convened for this purpose. The process shall be as provided below:
